

PRESS RELEASE

January 12, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CUSO Financial Services, L.P., Gold and Silver Pacesetter Award

CUSO Financial Services, L.P., (CFS) announced that Scott Boyd and Tim Werdel, Investment Advisors for Kern Schools Federal Credit Union (KSFCU), are recipients of the 2009 Gold Pacesetter award and Silver Pacesetter award, respectively. CFS is the broker-dealer which partners with KSFCU to provide Members with investment services. Each year CFS presents the Top Pacesetter awards (Gold, Silver, and Bronze) to top Advisors from credit unions throughout the country who meet the criteria of a perfect balance of focus, commitment, and the best practice of serving clients and Members. "KSFCU is proud to have Scott and Tim's exceptional knowledge of the investment field and their high quality dedication to our Members recognized," said Steve Renock, KSFCU President/CEO.

Scott Boyd, a native of Bakersfield, graduated from Henderson State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology and Chemistry. Boyd has been a Financial Advisor for over 30 years and holds the series 7, 6, 22, 63, 66, 24 securities licenses, the California State Insurance License, and is FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority) registered in California, Oregon, Texas, Arizona, and Missouri.

Tim Werdel was born and raised in Bakersfield, graduated from the University of California at Davis with a Bachelor of Science degree in Managerial Economics and a Bachelor of Arts degree in History. Werdel holds a Series 7, 63, 66 securities licenses, the California State Insurance License, and is FINRA registered in California, Idaho, Missouri, New Mexico, Nevada, Oklahoma, and Texas.

Contact: Melissa Lintag, Sr. Marketing Officer
Kern Schools Federal Credit Union
(661) 833-7045
Melissa.Lintag@ksfcu.org

###