Complimentary Workshop: Riskology – “Studying the Elements of Risk in Retirement”

If you want the potential to create an income stream for life, this seminar is for you. There are several financial resources available that can be developed and effectively used to increase your income; Kern Schools Federal Credit Union’s (KSFCU) complimentary workshop, Riskology – “Studying the Elements of Risk in Retirement”, will explore those different areas to provide you with the right income building strategy best suited for your situation. Speakers John Border and Nat Rocco, CFS* Financial Services Professionals with KSFCU’s Investment and Insurances department, will educate clients and prospects about several income earning strategies including how to use different retirement and accumulation vehicles, how to take advantage of tax-deferred compounding and other benefits to create future income sources.

Get a start on creating a solid investment plan by attending KSFCU’s complimentary Riskology – “Studying the Elements of Risk in Retirement” workshop on Thursday, May 13th from 6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. at KSFCU’s Administration building located at 9500 Ming Ave, ½ block West of the Marketplace shopping center. Consumers can sign up by calling 833-7045 or by going online at www.ksfcu.org. All workshops are open to the public.
